Liverpool were interested in signing Wolves midfielder Matheus Nunes but are now expected to move on to other transfer targets 4 - with four other players in the frame

Wolves have removed a clause in Matheus Nunes' contract that would have allowed 4 him to join Liverpool for £44million.

Liverpool manager Jurgen Klopp is on the hunt for a new central midfielder and is 4 thought to be an admirer of the 24-year-old. Yet Wolves swooped to sign Nunes from Sporting Lisbon in a club-record 4 £38m deal last summer, beating Liverpool to his signature.

The Reds could have landed Nunes for £44m this summer due to 4 a clause in his contract, but that has now been removed. As such, Klopp and his recruitment team are now 4 looking at other central midfielders - including Brighton talent Moises Caicedo.

As reported by The Telegraph, Wolves are free to set 4 Nunes' price this summer if another club comes calling. They are expected to demand at least £50m for the player, 4 which may prove too much considering his minimal contribution this season.

Nunes has failed to score during his 25 Premier League 4 appearances, providing just a single assist. That has left Wolves in a perilous position, with Julen Lopetegui's side sitting two 4 points above the relegation zone. They drew 1-1 at Nottingham Forest on Saturday.

Perhaps the only way for Liverpool to get 4 Nunes on the cheap is if Wolves are relegated this season. If Wolves stay up, that will allow them to 4 keep hold of a player described as 'one of the best in the world' by Manchester City boss Pep Guardiola 4 last year.

Who do you think Liverpool should sign this summer? Let 4 us know in the comments below!

With Nunes out of the equation, Liverpool will focus on their other targets. The man 4 at the top of their shortlist is Jude Bellingham, the 19-year-old midfielder who impressed for England at the World Cup 4 in Qatar and is already one of Borussia Dortmund's best players.

Yet Dortmund are under no pressure to sell Bellingham this summer and could demand around £130m for his signature, which may prove too expensive for Liverpool. Another target is Chelsea midfielder Mason Mount, who is a more realistic option.

Mount, 24, is yet to agree a new contract with the Blues and has fewer than 15 months left on his existing deal. As such, Chelsea - who need to raise some funds this summer after spending more than £500m on players during the last 12 months - may sell Mount.

It is unclear

how much Chelsea will demand for Mount, but it won't be anywhere near as much as £130m.

Liverpool are also interested in Mount's Chelsea team-mate Conor Gallagher, a 23-year-old who has the energy and dynamism to suit Klopp's style of play.

In terms of Caicedo, the 21-year-old is enjoying a breakthrough season with Brighton. The emerging talent has featured in all but one of their Premier League games this term - starting 24 times - and scored for Ecuador at the World Cup in Qatar.

Yet it will be tricky to prize him away from the Amex. Arsenal offered £70m for Caicedo in January - with the player keen to move - but Brighton refused to budge. The Seagulls then tied him down to a new long-term deal last month.
